Missouri Prosecutor Is Acquitted of Charge of Murdering His Wife.

St. Joseph, Mo. Dec. 6 .- Having been acquitted of a charge of having murdered his wife, Oscar D. McDaniel today resumed his duties as prosecuting attorney of Buchanan county. The jury's verdict was announced Tuesday night after two hours deliberation.

Mrs. McDaniel was found heaten and dying in her bedroom here about if eclock the night of July 1t. She died within a few hours

He Blamed Enemies. McDanlel's story of the events on the night of the murder was that he was summoned up town by a local tele-phone call about this p. m. and re-turned home at midulable. He engaged in a pistol duel outside his residence with an unknown assailant who hid behind a tree, he said, and then, coince into the house to obtain another re-volver with which to continue the fight, found his wife on the bedroom floor-dying, her head in a peol of blood. Ehemies occasioned by his work as prosecuting aftorney were accused by him and his friends as responsible for the crime.

Baron Scotford will be here until after Christmas. He is en route to Palm Beach, Florida, for the winter, traveling in a Ford sedam, which is decorated on the interior like an artist similo, with dancing girls, landscapes and portraits of notable people, all the work of his scissors.

Barun Scotford is necompanied by Miss Maidle Roberts, his sisterinlaw, who was "queen of the zone" at the San Diego exposition, where she cut silhouets for more than a year. The baron cut silhouets at the San Francisco fair for a year and during that time his work was featured in the San Francisco papers daily. He cut the likeness of every prominent visitor to the fair, including expresidents Taff and Roosevelt, from whom he has auto-straph letters of thanks.
